DEDICATION

Timothy C. Pennell, M.D.

In keeping with tradition, the 1981 Gray Matter is dedicated to that member of the faculty who has had lasting influence on the class of 1981. There are many who might be considered, but few have set the example of Dr. Timothy C. Pennell. Dr. Pennell has been with us through every phase of our education. He has shown us the way to become competent, caring physicians through his dedication to his family, through his consideration for his patients, through his service to the community, and through his loyalty to us, his students. For these and many other reasons, we, the staff, are proud to dedicate this book to him.

Marty Lantelme

The 1981 Gray Matter takes pride in recognizing those persons without whom there would be no annual. Their spirit and devotion combine to make Bowman Gray the school that it is. From curricula of the first and second years to the scheduling of third year rotations and fourth year electives, their diligence, understanding, and patience have allowed all of us to fulfill our educational needs. They deserve special recognition along with the other awards given by our school. To them we say thanks!

IN MEMORIUM

DOUG JOHNSON

1955-1981

To laugh often and much; to win respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.

This is to have succeeded.

Doug succeeded!

*Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright:
for the end of that man is peace.* (Balm 37:37)

It is the greatest of all mistakes to do nothing because you can only do a little. Do what you can. — S. Smith

And as in uffish thought he stood, the Jabberwock, with eyes of flame ...

Erare humanum est.

Saturday in the pork, I think it was the Faurther of July ...

Ce n'est que le premeir pas qui caute,

It's been a hard days night and I've been working like a dog.

Medicine is the only profession where we inflict so much pain to cure and cause discomfort in order to help.

You've spent years in a grueling effort to know the structure and process of human life. I can't imagine a more difficult task. It has required the understanding of complexities within complexities, and there has been more pressure placed on you in four years than most people would be willing to take in a lifetime.

Let me challenge you. With all your study, you can name all the bones in my body. You can read my X-rays like a telegram. But can you read my involuntary muscles? If I tell you where it hurts, can you hear in my voice where I ache? I show you my body but I bring you my person. Can you see me through your reading glasses? Will you tell me what you're doing, and in words I can understand? Can you face your own fear, your own uncertainty? When in doubt, can you call in help?

But there is one more thing you can learn about the body that only a non-doctor would tell you — and I hope you always remember this: The head bone is connected to the heart bone and don't let them come apart.

I learned this from our computer assisted instruction time.

A patient gets wise to score tactics

Second year was a time of: learning the esoteric diseases . . . donning crisp white coats . . . squeaky new doctor bags . . . Barbara Bates and James Philp . . . Summer research . . . friends who became better friends . . . beards . . . relaxation . . . National Boards . . . awkward pelvic examinations . . . not hearing the murmur or seeing the macula . . . marriages for some . . . new babies for others . . . seeing "Real" patients . . . autopsies . . . exploring one's own fears and beliefs . . . taskmaster residents . . . not remembering much from first year . . . choosing 3rd yr. vacations . . . 3½ hour histories and physicals . . . urinalyses . . . Skinner . . . getting involved in the community for some . . . a class band . . . Ronald Reagan . . . the Focus building . . . fighting infants and fussy elders . . . and finally visions of third year dancing in our heads.

C'mon Deacs!

Where's the beach?

Why, certainly . . .

You've Got A Big Airline Right In Your Own Backyard.

In 1948, Piedmont Airlines started out right here in Winston-Salem.

Since then, we have grown from a small airline to a major carrier serving middle-eastern America and major cities North, South and West.

But we don't ask you to fly with us just because we're located in your backyard.

We ask you to fly with us because we offer the kind of service only a big airline can give: big, comfortable jets and convenient schedules to a lot of places.

At the same time, we think you'll like the attitude of our people. When you fly with home folks, you fly with friends.

From Winston-Salem.

INTRODUCING
THE SAVIN 880.
XEROX WILL PROBABLY BUY ONE
BEFORE YOU DO.

Why should Xerox be in such a rush? Wouldn't you want a closer look at the newest generation of the copier most likely to replace you?

The Savin 880 is the latest in a new perspective of copiers. A perspective that's revolutionizing the concept of copiers. A perspective that's changing the way you copy.

With a micro-processor that controls an electronic digital control panel. And a Copy Memory that lets you interrupt a long run with a short one.

Electronic self-diagnostic display for improved serviceability.

Extensive paper selection from two newly designed paper trays. Each holding 300 sheets of letter, legal, even computer readout paper.

The 880 is built to last a lifetime, and has document feed capability. First copy time: an incredible 4.3 seconds.

The Savin 880. No generation gap. Everything that made the 880 the best selling copier in the world in the seventies is still going strong for the 800 generation: electronic brain, short paper path, liquid toner technology, energy-saving automatic shut-off.

The revolutionary copiers that are winning over big business.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The staff of the 1981 Gray Matter would like to extend our most sincere thanks to the following people, without whose help the completion of our annual would not have been possible: George Lynch and Jock Dent of the Department of Audio-Visual Resources for their help with the art work, photography, and in obtaining file photographs; the administration for their confidence, patience, and appropriations; the Office of Student Affairs for providing us with the wealth of information printed herein, and for their IBM Correcting Selectric II; Martha Urbanik for her knowledge of the Medical School, the Medical Center, and the former occupants our office, for her sympathetic ear, and for her weekly yearbook staff meetings; Virgil Willard and Pat Brown for their invaluable assistance; Dr. Tim Pennell for always hiding; Neolie Fronz for falling in love; John Umhoefer for always being away; Maxwell House and the midnite oil for their desperately needed support; Dr. Sarah Sinal for allowing the editor to miss one afternoon of clinic; and especially J. B. Edwards of Hunter Publishing Company for sticking with us despite ourselves. Our sincere apologies to anyone inadvertently omitted in word, picture, or deed.

Robert S. McAlpin, Jr., editor

COLOPHON

Six hundred and seventy copies of the 1981 Gray Matter were printed by Hunter Publishing Company of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Our book was printed in Metrolite type for copy block and captions. Headlines were printed in Quadrata style. The paper is white with gloss finish, and the ink is black. The cover is of smooth black Lexitone with hot-stamped silver for the design.
